

Minutes of the General Meeting of LVRAC----April 19,2017

Board of Directors members present: Charlie Shepard—K7CBS, Al Walles—KG7TCS, Mark Zuckerman—K7MNZ (excused), Gary Desler—AA7YO, Jerry Sobel—KØMBB, Jerry Wojciechowski--K9ADY.

There were 20 people present, including 2 visitors.

The meeting was called to order and the pledge of allegiance was led by President Charlie Shepard.

The treasurer's report was read by Gary Desler and accepted by voice vote.

The minutes were accepted as printed on the web site.

A discussion was held about NVCON. A formal "Critique" will be held shortly to discuss the good, the bad and any changes to be considered for next year. NVCON made a profit, and that money will be seed money for next year's convention.

A report was given by Clayton Hughes—KB7PHB about the Susan B. Koman "Race for the cure". The meeting place and time for the volunteers was given as 6 AM on Saturday May 6th at Clark and 4th streets in downtown Las Vegas.

Charlie also mentioned that immediately after the, LVRAC had a booth at the Science and Technology Fair at the Cashman center and volunteers were encouraged to meet with him to sign up.

Vern Garman—KØEGA gave an excellent presentation on the history of Colins radios, their merge with Rockwell International, and how the current Colins Radio Comm. Center was set up to work with military, Customs and civilian radio applications.

Charlie talked about the grand opening for Gigibytes. The Showroom will be at 3021 S. Valley View Blvd. There is still some question as to whether, or not, there will be a sales department there. However, it is rumored that if you buy something online, you can pick it up at the showroom.

The NAB ham night reception will be held at the Westgate hotel (ballroom B) on Wednesday the 26th of April at 7 PM. As is customary, a ticket will be provided for a free drink and a second one to be used in the prize drawings. Entrance is free.

The raffle was held and a soldering iron, a power supply and a helping hand (alligator clips and a magnifying glass) were given away.

End of minutes.
